INTERNATIONAL DAY OF THE GIRL CHILD 2016-17

Films carry strong messages. In this model 11.10.2016 was celebrated as 'International Day for the Girl Child'. Video screening of movie "Mary Kom" (biographical sports film) was done to motivate young girls. Life is all about challenges and Women in India are taking it. Real life inspiration is meant for bridging the gap of Gender Discrimination and supporting opportunity. Mangte Chungneijang (MC) Mary Kom or magnificent Mary says; “I don’t have anything to give except for gold to my country”. She rightly proves it. She is the first Indian women Boxer to win a Gold Medal. At the age of 35 and bearing two children Mary shows the world that boxing is not only a Man’s domain. Born to parents of landless farmer in Manipur she depicts a story of relentless struggle & unflagging Passion for boxing.

Learning outcome:

- a). Knowledge about Amateur and Professional Boxing.
- b) Knowledge about Sports quota reservation system. (Journey from a boxer to MLA)
- c) Knowledge about Brand Ambassador (Role model and Icon for ECI; Election Commission of India, motivating Indian Women & youth to cast their valuable vote).
- d) Awareness of National/International Sports events like: World Armature Boxing Champion league, Summer Olympic, AIBA, Asian Games, Commonwealth Games etc.
- e) Knowledge about Indian Awards: Padmashri (2006) & Padmabhusan (2013).
- f) Sensitization about NER people and separate council.
- g) Learning that Child Birth is not symbolic of Physical Weakness. It takes Determination and hard work to achieve goal.
- h) Partners in life can encourage goal acquisition for their better half or consort. ‘Strong message’. You can make your children proud at any point of time or age.

POSTER RALLY& PLANTATION: GIRL CHILD EDUCATION ‘BETI BACHAO BETI PADHAO’.

Date: 26.11.2016

Beti Bachao Beti Padhao(BBBP) launched by the Prime Minister on 22 January 2015 at Panipat Haryana on the context of declining child sex ratio (CSR) and related issues of women empowerment. In the speech he proclaimed ‘Beta, Beti ek saman’. He envisioned the celebration of girl child and urged all to sow five plants on birth of a girl child. In response to this college students along with NCC threw a poster rally for raising awareness. NCC students and Principal and sports officer from college planted five Mango saplings within college premise. Students consulted the local villagers about girl’s compulsory education and its importance in nation building as well as awareness regarding female foetus examination as legal offence.
